This is the generic fallback version. It is only used when there was no time to build individual sheets after marking. The real version of this sheet has ONLY this student's own errors (3–6 items), never a shared list. Build the personalised sheet from the marked script before falling back to this one.

Your writing, fixed

For each item: read what you wrote, read the fix, then write a NEW sentence of your own using the same fix correctly.

1. RELATIVE CLAUSE PUNCTUATION

What you wrote:

.....

Fix it:

.....

Rule: a non-defining clause always has a comma before it (and after it, if the sentence continues) — and never uses "that".

Your new sentence:

.....

2. SEQUENCING WORDS

What you wrote:

.....

Fix it:

.....

Rule: use at least three different sequencing words in your story (suddenly, at first, but then, one day) — not just "then" every time.

Your new sentence:

.....

3. STORY STRUCTURE

What you wrote:

.....

Fix it:

.....

Rule: beginning (people, place, time), middle (the action, often with a surprise), end (explains events, or leaves a mystery). Not just a beginning and middle.

Your new sentence:

.....

4. SPELLING

What you wrote:

.....

Fix it:

.....

Rule: British spelling (colour, not color) — check any clothes/materials word you're unsure of.

Your new sentence:

.....

5. WORD COUNT

What you wrote:

.....

Fix it:

.....

Rule: "about 100 words" means roughly 90-110. Count before you hand it in.

Your new sentence:

.....
