

FCE I · UNIT 3 · GRAMMAR P36Revision: past simple and past perfect in stories

About 15 minutes. Do it in pencil, then check with your teacher.

Story order: you do not have to tell events in the order they happened.

Past simple for the main events; past perfect (simple or continuous) for what happened before them.

After after, before, until, as soon as you can often choose past simple or past perfect: the meaning is almost the same.

1 Circle the correct verb forms.

1. Irene (opened / had opened) the letter and (felt / had felt) sick: she (failed / had failed) her driving test again.
2. Adrián (took / had taken) a taxi to the Albufera because he (missed / had missed) the last bus.
3. When we arrived at El Saler, the sand (was / had been) wet because it (rained / had been raining) all night.

2 Complete with the correct form of the verb. Sometimes two answers are possible.

1. Daniel _____ (leave) the café before the storm began.
2. After the rain _____ (stop), we walked along the Turia.
3. Pablo was exhausted because he _____ (work) in the restaurant since six that morning.
4. Laia was upset because someone _____ (break) her guitar.
5. Irene opened the door, _____ (see) the mess and _____ (call) her landlord.
6. My phone was dead because I _____ (forget) to charge it.

3 Each sentence has one mistake. Write the correct sentence.

1. When I arrived at the bus stop, the bus already left.

2. She was crying because she had lost her wallet, and then she had called the police.

3. I had been waiting for two hours when the film had begun.

4. After we have finished dinner, we went to the Malvarrosa.

4 Tell the story. Write two sentences. Use the past simple for events and the past perfect for what happened earlier.

1. When I got home last night, the flat was in a mess because

2.
