Get your marked Unit 4 article back out. For each category below: if the teacher marked this kind of mistake in your writing, copy your sentence, fix it, then write ONE new sentence of your own using the same fix. If you did not make this mistake, write "n/a" and move on.

1. Register — engaging the reader

What I wrote (or "n/a"):

Fixed version:

My own new sentence, same fix:

Reminder: start with an engaging opener, address the reader as "you", and use at least one rhetorical question.

2. Future forms

What I wrote (or "n/a"):

Fixed version:

My own new sentence, same fix:

Reminder: never will/going to straight after before, after, when or until.

3. Countable/uncountable & quantifiers

What I wrote (or "n/a"):

Fixed version:

My own new sentence, same fix:

Reminder: advice and information are always uncountable in English.

4. Did I cover both task parts?

Part I did not fully cover (or "n/a, I covered both"):

One or two extra sentences that would cover it properly:

5. Word count

My word count was: _____ (target: 140–190)

If I was outside the range, what would I add or cut?

6. Spelling and basic accuracy

One spelling/accuracy mistake I made (or "n/a"):

Correct form:

My two priorities for next time
