

Find your common ground

Ten questions about the things you actually like. Ask the other two, write short notes on what they say, then work out together what you all have in common.

MARTINA'S COPY

STEP 1 Interview the other two about 12 minutes

Take turns asking each other these ten questions — don't just wait for your turn to talk. Listen properly and jot down a short note on what Víctor and Isabella answer, in their own words if you can.

	QUESTION	VÍCTOR SAYS	ISABELLA SAYS
1	What kind of music do you actually listen to, when nobody else is choosing the playlist?
2	What's the last series you got hooked on — the one you couldn't stop watching?
3	Is there a food you could eat every single day and never get tired of?
4	What do you usually do on a lazy Saturday with absolutely no plans?
5	Have you got a favourite place to hang out in Valencia? VALENCIA
6	If you had two weeks off and enough money, where in the world would you go?
7	Do you play a sport, or is there one you'd love to try one day?
8	Is there a public figure — an athlete, singer, actor — you genuinely admire? Why?
9	What's something you're weirdly good at that would surprise people?
10	Would you rather spend a free evening with friends, alone, or somewhere in between? Why?

Find your common ground

Ten questions about the things you actually like. Ask the other two, write short notes on what they say, then work out together what you all have in common.

VÍCTOR'S COPY

STEP 1 Interview the other two about 12 minutes

Take turns asking each other these ten questions — don't just wait for your turn to talk. Listen properly and jot down a short note on what Martina and Isabella answer, in their own words if you can.

	QUESTION	MARTINA SAYS	ISABELLA SAYS
1	What kind of music do you actually listen to, when nobody else is choosing the playlist?
2	What's the last series you got hooked on — the one you couldn't stop watching?
3	Is there a food you could eat every single day and never get tired of?
4	What do you usually do on a lazy Saturday with absolutely no plans?
5	Have you got a favourite place to hang out in Valencia? VALENCIA
6	If you had two weeks off and enough money, where in the world would you go?
7	Do you play a sport, or is there one you'd love to try one day?
8	Is there a public figure — an athlete, singer, actor — you genuinely admire? Why?
9	What's something you're weirdly good at that would surprise people?
10	Would you rather spend a free evening with friends, alone, or somewhere in between? Why?

Find your common ground

Ten questions about the things you actually like. Ask the other two, write short notes on what they say, then work out together what you all have in common.

ISABELLA'S COPY

STEP 1 Interview the other two about 12 minutes

Take turns asking each other these ten questions — don't just wait for your turn to talk. Listen properly and jot down a short note on what Martina and Víctor answer, in their own words if you can.

	QUESTION	MARTINA SAYS	VÍCTOR SAYS
1	What kind of music do you actually listen to, when nobody else is choosing the playlist?
2	What's the last series you got hooked on — the one you couldn't stop watching?
3	Is there a food you could eat every single day and never get tired of?
4	What do you usually do on a lazy Saturday with absolutely no plans?
5	Have you got a favourite place to hang out in Valencia? VALENCIA
6	If you had two weeks off and enough money, where in the world would you go?
7	Do you play a sport, or is there one you'd love to try one day?
8	Is there a public figure — an athlete, singer, actor — you genuinely admire? Why?
9	What's something you're weirdly good at that would surprise people?
10	Would you rather spend a free evening with friends, alone, or somewhere in between? Why?		