

First Day

Nobody in this room knows everybody yet. By the end of the class, everybody will.

TASK 1 Tell me a bit about you answer for yourself, alone

Two or three words is enough. You are going to ask other people these same questions in a minute, so answer honestly, not cleverly.

	QUESTION	MY ANSWER
1	What do people call you?
2	Which part of Valencia do you live in?
3	What do you do first when you get home?
4	What are you watching or listening to at the moment?
5	What sport or activity do you do?
6	What is your favourite food?
7	Which subject do you like most at school?
8	Where do you like going in Valencia?
9	Which country would you most like to visit?
10	What are you good at?
11	What job would you like one day?
12	How would your friends describe you? Two words.

TASK 2 Now find your people stand up and ask

Same twelve questions, different people. Ask your classmates the questions from page 1. When somebody gives an answer close to yours, write their name and what they said. You need at least one name from every person in the room.

And when they do not: Really? I don't. · Me neither. · Oh, I prefer ____.

To keep them talking: Why? · Since when? · How often? · Who with?

TASK 3 Build your six lines use your answers from page 1WRITE THEM OUT IN FULL

TASK 4 Practise, then stand up partner first, class second

Step 1. Say your six lines to the person next to you. They tell you one thing to improve.

Step 2. Say them again to the class, standing. About one minute. You can hold the paper, but look up at least twice.

TASK 5 While you listen everybody has a job

You are not waiting for your turn. For every classmate, write one thing you learned and one question you will ask them afterwards.

CLASSMATE	ONE THING I LEARNED	MY QUESTION FOR THEM

TASK 6 Common ground all of you, together

As a class, find three things that are true for every single person in this room, including your teacher. They cannot be obvious ones like "we all study English" or "we all live in Spain". You have five minutes and you must all agree.

ALL OF US...

2
3

TASK 7 The person most like me one sentence

Look back at page 2. Who did you match with most often? Write it out in full.

1. I have the most in common with _____, because we both _____.

BEFORE YOU LEAVE

Write one thing you want to be better at in English by December. Keep this booklet, we will look at it again then.

The Level Ladder

Six parts, one for each unit of the book we are about to start. Climb as high as you can.

BEFORE YOU START

This is not an exam and it does not go on any report. It covers the whole year, so most of it is material we have not taught yet. Nobody is expected to finish, and getting a question wrong today just tells me where to spend our time. Guessing is fine, leaving it blank is fine too.
