

First Day

Nobody in this room knows everybody yet. By the end of the class, everybody will.

TASK 1 Find someone who stand up, ask, write

How it works. Stand up and ask your classmates. Ask the full question, do not just show them the paper. When someone says yes, write their name and one extra detail. You cannot use the same name more than three times, so you have to talk to everybody.

	FIND SOMEONE WHO...	NAME	ONE EXTRA DETAIL
1	knows somebody with an interesting job.
2	ate something new this summer.
3	can cook one dish really well.
4	has been to another country.
5	lives near the beach or goes there often.
6	plays a sport every week.
7	watches series in English.
8	shares a bedroom.
9	has bought clothes in a market or second-hand.
10	knows what job they want in the future.
11	has a pet.
12	went to a concert or a festival this year.

USE THESE QUESTIONS

Do you...? · Have you ever...? · Can you...? · Did you... this summer? · Are you wearing...? And then, always: Really? Tell me more. · Where? · When? · Why? · How often?

TASK 2 About you short answers, just for you

Answer for yourself. Two or three words is enough. Nobody reads this except you.

1 Your name, and what people call you.

3 Who do you live with?

5 What are you into at the moment?

7 Something you are good at.

9 A job you would like one day.

11 Something that surprises people about you.

2 Which part of Valencia do you live in?

4 What do you do every day after school?

6 One thing you did this summer.

8 Two words that describe your character.

10 Something you want to do before you are 20.

12 Why are you learning English?

TASK 3

Now build your six lines

1. My name's _____ and everyone calls me _____.

2. I live in _____ with _____.

3. Every day after school I _____, and at the moment I'm _____.

4. This summer I _____. I'm quite good at _____.

5. People say I'm _____ and _____. One day I'd like to be _____.

6. People are usually surprised that I _____.

Then add a seventh line. Look at your Find Someone Who sheet and finish this: I found out that _____ and I both _____.

TASK 4 Practise, then stand up partner first, class second

Step 1. Say your seven lines to the person next to you. They tell you one thing to improve. Step 2. Say them again to the class, standing. About one minute. You can hold the paper, but look up at least twice.

TASK 5 While you listen everybody has a job

You are not just waiting for your turn. For every classmate, write one thing you learned and one question you will ask them afterwards.

CLASSMATE	ONE THING I LEARNED	MY QUESTION FOR THEM

TASK 6 Common ground all five of you, together

As a class, find three things that are true for every single person in this room, including your teacher. They cannot be obvious ones like "we all study English" or "we all live in Spain". You have five minutes and you must all agree.

	ALL FIVE OF US...

BEFORE YOU LEAVE

Write one thing you want to be better at in English by December. Keep this sheet, we will look at it again at the end of the course.
