

Your First Day report

Your corrections and your Level Ladder, in one place.

NAME Chloé Miralles GROUP PET I · B1 (trial class) SHEET First Day + Level Ladder

1 General evaluation

Your answers are clear and easy to follow. You know part of Unit 5 and a good number of everyday words. The present perfect, the relative pronouns and the conditionals are new for you, and that is normal on a first day.

2 Strengths

You write full sentences, as the class rule asks. I'm watching is correct present continuous, and I play softball is exactly right. On the Level Ladder you chose like (a stative verb), is sleeping (happening now) and was cooking (an interrupted action). You also used be going to correctly for a plan and for evidence, and boils for a fact. You know useful words too: architect, sour, glacier, receipt, wardrobe, move.

3 Main points to improve

Check the spelling of words you already know: first, thing, probably, usually, architect, favourite. Write I with a capital letter every time. Give every sentence a subject and a verb: say I think it's Tanzania, not I think is Tanzania. When you talk about last summer, use the past simple: I went, not I usually go.

On the Level Ladder, the present perfect in Unit 3 (items 13, 14 and 15) is the biggest gap. Learn have been, have lived since and have been looking for first.

This summer, ~~i'm usually go~~ I went to Bilbao and ~~i meet~~ I met my friends. They ~~a mini tour of~~ gave me a mini tour of Bilbao and we ~~we go~~ went to eat.

I want to ~~be better when i write in english~~ get better at writing in English.

Model version: This summer I went to Bilbao and met my friends. They gave me a mini tour of the city and we went to eat. I want to get better at writing in English.

Part A · Language points

What to remember from your First Day answers.

PATTERN 1 · A SENTENCE NEEDS A SUBJECT AND A VERB

You wrote ~~I think is Tanzania~~, ~~I probably think is arquitee~~ and ~~They a mini tour~~. Each one misses a word. Say I think it's Tanzania, I'd like to be an architect and They gave me a mini tour.

PATTERN 2 · SPELLING AND CAPITALS

You spelled ~~firts, probably, usually, arquitee, favorite, center~~ in different ways. Write first, probably, usually, architect, favourite, centre. At Somerset we use British spelling. Write I with a capital letter every time, and give names and titles capitals too.

YOU WROTE	BETTER VERSION	WHY
I live in Ruaya street	I live on Ruaya Street.	Use on with a street. Street names take capitals.
The firts think i do is eat	The first thing I do is eat.	Thing is the noun, think is the verb.
the most subject i like ... is history	The subject I like most at school is history.	Most goes after like .
the Valencia center	the centre of Valencia	British spelling: centre .
I think is Tanzania	I think it's Tanzania.	English needs the subject it .
I'm good at the softball	I'm good at softball.	No the before a sport.
I probably think is arquitee	I'd like to be an architect.	For a future job, use I'd like to be . An before a vowel sound.
This summer, i'm usually go	This summer I went	This summer is finished, so use the past simple. Am and go never go together.
They a mini tour	They gave me a mini tour	Add the verb: gave (give is irregular).
we we go to eat	we went to eat	Do not repeat we . Use the past: went .
better when i write	better at writing	Good at / better at + -ing .
